An Act to enable His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales to grant Leases of certain Lands and Premises called Prince's Meadows, in the Parish of London, in the County of Surrey, Parcel of His said Royal Highness's Duchy of Cornwall, for the Purpose of building thereon. [12th March 1810.]

49 G. 3. c. 3.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intimated, An Act for building a Bridge over the River Thames, from the Precinct of the Savoy, or near thereto, in the County of Middlesex, to the opposite Shore, and for making convenient Roads and Approaches to communicate thereunto in the County of Surrey, the Company of Proprietors of the said intended Bridge are authorized to fit out and make a Road from the said Bridge, so or near to a certain Place called the Old, in the County of Surrey, in the Parish of Saint George's Southwark, in the said County of Surrey; and also to fit out and make another Road, from a certain Street called Sturford Street, in the Parish of Christ Church, in the said County of Surrey, to the said first mentioned Road; and the said Company of Proprietors are further authorized to purchase a certain Slip, or Piece of Land, which, in the making and finishing of the said

* first mentioned Road, will interpose between each Road and the Estate and Premises of His said Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, in Duke of Cornwall, called Prince's Meadows, in the Parish of Saint Mary Lambeth, in the County of Surrey, and to assign, transfer and let over the said 50^o or Piece of Land unto His said Royal Highness, His Heirs and Successors, Dukes of Cornwall, in exchange for each Parture of Land, Parcel of the said Premises, called Prince's Meadows, as shall be requisite for the making and continuing of the said before mentioned Roads, in their Course through and over certain Parts of the said Premises called Prince's Meadows; And whereas the ordering of the said intended Bridge, to be called the Second Bridge, and the making and continuing of the said intended Roads, together with the before mentioned Exchange of Land, is authorized as aforesaid, will tend greatly to the Improvement of the said Premises called Prince's Meadows, in connection with all the adjoining Property, if Encouragement shall be given for the Erection of good and substantial Dwelling Houses and other Buildings, in lieu of the present Houses, most of which are decayed chiefly of Wood, and are in a ruinous State, and for, with the Remainder of the said Premises, a profit gross Rental to the Lessors of about Three thousand two hundred Pounds only per annum; and also for the Construction of other respectable Buildings in the Line of the said intended Roads, and the making of other Roads or Streets in connection with the before mentioned intended Roads; all which might be effected, if His said Royal Highness was empowered to grant Leases of the said Premises, upon such Terms as might be for the mutual Benefit of His said Royal Highness and His Successors; And whereas the said Premises called Prince's Meadows, contain altogether, by Advancement, Tenure eight Acres, Three Rods, and Ten Perches of Land, or thereabout, and comprise within the Limits thereof a Range of Wharfs, with Two Bargebooms, altogether abutting upon the River Thames, to the Extent of One thousand two hundred and fifty two Feet, or thereabout, behind which Wharf and Bargebooms there is a narrow Road or Street, called the Narrow Walk, the irregular and winding Course whereof precludes several of the said Wharfs from occupying a sufficient Space on the River, but which might be widened, and the Public be more conveniently accommodated, by the making and continuing of another Road or Street across the said Premises called Prince's Meadows, on five of, and somewhat farther removed from the said River, than the before mentioned Road or Street called the Narrow Walk, in which the present Buildings are for the most Part constructed of Wood, and otherwise are of a very inferior Description, and some of these in a very ruinous State, and the Remainder of the said Premises consists principally of Meadow or Pasture Land and Garden Ground, there being only a small Parture thereof covered with Buildings; And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to enable His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales to make Leases, Copies and Grants of Offices, Lands and Hereditaments, Parcel of His said Royal Highness's Duchy of Cornwall, or annexed to the same; and for the better Purposes therein mentioned; His said Royal Highness, in addition to the ordinary Powers therein vested in His said Royal Highness, of making Leases and Grants for the Term of Thirty one Year, or for Terms of Years determinable upon Three Lives, in further empowerment to make Leases and Grants of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, Parcel of the Possession of the said Duchy of Cornwall, or annexed to the same, for any Term of Years not exceeding the Term of Ninety six Years, especially for the Purpose of improving the same, by erecting substantial Buildings thereon, or for the Purpose of improving Waste Lands by Cultivation or otherwise; provided that upon all such Leases or Grants to be made for Terms exceeding Thirty one Year, or exceeding the said Term determinable upon Three Lives, approved Annual Ground Rents should be reserved, payable to His said Royal Highness, or to such as should have the Substantance or other Estate of the said Duchy; and that in all such Cases no Fine or other Consideration should be taken by His said Royal Highness, further or other than the imposed Annual Ground Rents to be reserved as aforesaid; And whereas the said before recited Provision against the taking of Fines or other Consideration of Leases or Grants to be made by His said Royal Highness for Terms exceeding Thirty one Year, or exceeding the said Term determinable upon Three Lives, was intended to deprive His said Royal Highness of the usual Benefit of Fines to be received, in the ordinary Course of granting Leases in like Manner as such Fines might now be received by His said Royal Highness, in respect to the said Premises called Prince's Meadows, by granting the same Leases or Grants thereof for such Terms of Years as, with the calling Terms thereof, would not exceed the ordinary Period of Thirty one Year, but which Provision is of a Duration not limited to said deficient Encouragement for the erecting of any substantial Buildings, whilst the continuing in so great the said Premises for short Terms of Years will not only have the Effect of excluding them from the Improvement whereof they are from Situation susceptible, but may to the first time occasion the said Premises to remain as Interregnum in any general Plan for the Improvement of the Neighborhood, which at present stands in much in Need thereof; And whereas it would not be advisable, until the Circumstances before mentioned, to make any immediate Leases or Grants of the said Premises called Prince's Meadows, for each Term only six, with the existing Term or Terms therein, could all up the Line to the ordinary Period of Thirty one Year, more especially as the said Premises could not be made to produce, under a Lease or Leases to be granted for such limited Term of Years, a greater Issue than the Sum of Four thousand two hundred Pounds yearly, clear of all Outgoings, which under a Lease or Leases to be granted for exceeding the Term in Thirty one Years absolute, the Ground might be covered with respectable Houses, and the clear Income to be derived therefrom, be increased to Five thousand Pounds yearly; But forasmuch as His said Royal Highness, by granting Building Leases for such an extended Term of Years, would be deprived of the Benefit of such Fine or Fines as may rightfully belong to His said Royal Highness, and could be readily obtained by making Reversionary Grants of the said Premises for filling up the present Term thereof to Thirty one Years; So it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for His said Royal Highness, and His said Royal Highness is hereby authorized and empowered to make Leases and Grants, or to contract and agree for Himself, His Heirs and Successors, to make Leases and Grants, of all or any Part or Parcel of the said Premises, with the Appurtenances, called Prince's Meadows, to any Person or Persons whatsoever, for such Term or Terms of Years as, with the Term or Terms to be made, under any existing Lease or Leases, shall not altogether exceed the Term of Ninety nine Years from the Date of any such Lease or Grants, or from the Date of any Contracts or Agreements to be made as aforesaid, and under such improved Yeasty Rent or Rents, (in addition to the Yeasty Rent or Rents now referred as aforesaid,) to commence and become payable to His said Royal Highness, His Heirs and Successors, from and after the Expiration of Thirty one Years from the Date of any such Lease or Grants, Contracts or Agreements respectively, as shall not, in the whole Amount of such Rent or Rents, be less than the clear Sum of Five thousand Pounds yearly; and that in all Cases of such extended Leases or Grants, Contracts or Agreements to be made as aforesaid, of all or any Part or Parcel of the said Premises, with the Appurtenances called Prince's Meadows, it shall and may be lawful for His said Royal Highness, and His said Royal Highness is hereby authorized and empowered to take and receive such Sum or Sums of Money, in the Way of Fee or Fine, as may be a fair and reasonable Consideration for such Portion of the said aforesaid Term or Terms of Years to be granted or contracted for as aforesaid, as with the Term or Terms then to be made, is the ordinary Course of granting Royalties within the said Duchy have made up the Term of Thirty one Years only from the Date of any such Lease or Grants, Contracts or Agreements.

An Act for altering the Mode of collecting the Duty on Insurances against Loss by Fire, upon Property in His Majesty's Islands and Possessions in the West Indies, and elsewhere beyond the Seas; and for exempting certain Bonds and Receipts from Stamp Duty; for giving Relief in certain Cases of Stamps spoiled or mislaid; and for explaining Part of an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, for granting Stamp Duties in Great Britain. [14th May 1810.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twenty second Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, Act for charging a Duty on Persons whose Property shall be insured against Loss by Fire; a yearly Duty of One Shilling and Six pence per Centum was imposed upon all Sums insured on any Property against Loss by Fire; and all Persons who should publicly or privately insure or keep any Office for insuring Property against Loss by Fire were required to take out a License for that Purpose from the Commissioners of Stamps, and to enter into Bonds to His Majesty for the Payment of the Duties payable in respect thereof: And whereas the yearly Duty imposed by the said Act, together with an additional yearly Duty of Six pence imposed by a subsequent Act, was repealed by an Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, and a yearly Duty of Two Shillings and Six pence per Centum was thereby imposed upon all Sums insured on Property against Loss by Fire, in lieu thereof; whereas the said Act is repealed and abolished by and under the Regulations and Provisions of the said Act of the Twenty second Year of His Majesty's Reign; And whereas many Persons having Property in Trinidad, and in others of His Majesty's Islands and Possessions in the West Indies, and elsewhere beyond the Seas, cannot procure the same to be insured against Loss by Fire, to the Amount desired by the public Companies or Companies by whom Insurances against Fire are most commonly made, and they cannot procure Insurances to be made on such Property by Individuals, because of the Regulations of the said Act of the Twenty second Year of His Majesty's Reign, which are found inconvenient, as applied to them: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons in Great Britain, to insure any Houses, Buildings, Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or other Property situated and being in any of the Islands, Settlements or Territories belonging to or under the Dominion of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in the West Indies, or elsewhere beyond the Seas, against Loss or Damage by Fire, without taking out a License, and entering into a Bond to His Majesty, pursuant to the Directions and Regulations of the said Act of the Twenty second Year of His Majesty's Reign, and without being liable to the said yearly Duty imposed by the said Act of the Forty fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, but subject nevertheless to the Regulations and Restrictions hereafter contained.

II. And be it further enacted, That in lieu of the said yearly Duty imposed by the said Act of the Forty fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, there shall be raised, levied and paid, from and after the passing of this Act, unto and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in and throughout Great Britain, for and in respect of every Policy of Assurance or Insurances or other Instrument, by whatever Name the same shall be called, whereby any Insurances shall be made by any Person or Persons not being Secured as aforesaid, or upon any Building, Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or other Property situated and being in any of the Islands, Settlements or Territories belonging to or under the Dominion of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in the West Indies, or elsewhere beyond the Seas, from Loss or Damage by Fire, or for or in respect of the Value, Payment or Paper upon which any such Policy or Instrument shall be written or printed, the Duty following; that is to say, If the whole Sum thereby insured shall not exceed One hundred Pounds, a Duty of Two Shillings and Six pence; and if the whole Sum thereby insured shall exceed One hundred Pounds, then for every One hundred Pounds, and also for any fractional Part of One hundred Pounds, when the same shall exceed, a Duty of Two Shillings and Six pence, over and besides the Duty of One Shilling, charged on every such Policy or Instrument by an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

III. And be it further enacted, That no such Insurances shall be made by any Person or Persons, not being licensed as aforesaid, for any longer Period of time than Twelve Calendar Months, either absolutely or conditionally, in and by any One Policy or Instrument, and that every Policy or Instrument, whereby any such Insurances shall be made or attempted to be made by any Person or Persons not being licensed as aforesaid, for any longer Period of time, either absolutely or conditionally, shall be wholly null and void to all intents and Purposes, and the Person or Persons making or attempting to make such Insurances shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Duties hereby granted shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners for the time being appointed and authorized by His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to manage the Duties on Stamped Villains, Payments and Papers; which said Commissioners, and the major Part of them, are hereby empowered and required to provide proper and sufficient Stamps or Dies for expunging and denoting the said Duties hereby granted, or the Amount thereof respectively, upon the Villains, Payments or Paper chargeable therewith, and to alter and renew the same from time to time as Occasion shall require; and also to supply such Officers and Persons under them, and to do all such other Affairs and Things as shall be thought necessary or expedient for effectually raising and collecting the said Duties hereby granted, and for putting this Act into Execution, in the like and so as full and ample manner as they or any former Commissioners are or have been authorized to do for the raising and collecting of any former Stamp Duties, or for putting into Execution any Act or Acts of Parliament relating thereto.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to use any of the Stamps or Dies heretofore provided to denote any former Stamp Duties for the Purpose of expunging and denoting

XI. And whereas the Bonds by Law required to be entered into by the Collectors of the A. E. and Taxes and Property Tax, for securing the due Payment of the Moneys collected by them were exempted from Stamp Duty by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His Majesty's Reign; but the Exemption was not repealed in the Acts of the Forty fourth and Forty eighth Years of His Majesty's Reign for granting new Stamp Duties, where a Doubt hath arisen concerning the same; Be it therefore enacted, That all Bonds which have been entered into before the passing of this Act by any Collectors of the Assessed Taxes and Property Tax, and their Successors, for the due Payment of the Moneys collected by them, or otherwise relating to their Office on a stamped Paper or Parchment, shall nevertheless be deemed good and valid; and that all Perfors shall be indemnified from all Penalties and Forfeitures on account thereof; and that all such Bonds to be entered hereafter the passing of this Act shall be exempted from all Stamp Duties.

XII. And whereas the Paymasters of Exchange Bills have heretofore inadvertently taken Receipts for the Moneys paid by them in discharge of such Bills on unstamped Paper, under a Misapprehension that such Receipts were not subject to a Stamp Duty; Be it therefore further enacted, That all Receipts on unstamped Paper, taken by the Paymasters of Exchange Bills for either Principal or Interest Moneys paid by them in discharge of any such Bills at any time before the passing of this Act shall nevertheless be deemed good and valid; and that all Perfors who shall have given such Receipts, as well as the said Paymasters, shall be indemnified from all Penalties and Forfeitures on account thereof; and that from and after the passing of this Act all Receipts or Discharges to be given for or upon the Payment of any Principal or Interest Moneys incurred by Exchange Bills, shall be exempted from all Stamp Duties.

XIII. And whereas Misdoings have been frequently made in the Use of Stamps issued for denoting the said several Duties granted by the aforesaid Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, and some Perfors have used Stamps of much greater Value than were necessary, and others have used Stamps for Instruments not liable to a Stamp Duty, and others, without Intention of Fraud have used Stamps of less Value than were necessary, but still of considerable Value, whereby many Perfors have followed a considerable Loss, as the Commissioners of Stamps are not authorized to give Relief in such and the like Cases, but wish it expedient that they should be enabled to do under certain Restrictions; Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, where any Person shall have inadvertently used for or upon any Instrument liable to a Stamp Duty under the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, any Stamp or Stamps of greater Value than the Instrument required by the Sum of Fifty Shillings or upwards; and also where any Person shall have inadvertently used any Stamp or Stamps of the Value of Fifty Shillings or upwards, for or upon any Instrument not liable to any Stamp Duty; and also where any Person shall have inadvertently used for or upon any Instrument liable to a Stamp Duty under the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, any Stamp or Stamps of the Value of Fifty Shillings or upwards (exclusive of any progressive Duty), but which shall be of less Value than the Instrument required, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps to allow as good, and to cancel the Stamp or Stamps issued in the several Cases aforesaid, and to give another Stamp or Stamps of the same Description and Value, or otherwise, as their Discretion, where it shall appear to them to be expedient, Stamps of any other Description and of equal Value is less thereof, and to cancel the Instrument bearing the Stamp or Stamps aforesaid, if such be any Duty, to be stamped with the proper Stamp or Stamps for denoting the Duty chargeable thereon, upon Payment of such Duty, without demanding any Penalty in respect thereof; or if another Instrument of the same Tenor and Effect shall be produced duly stamped and duly executed, and the Instrument bearing the Stamp or Stamps aforesaid shall be delivered up to be cancelled, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to allow as good, and to cancel the Stamp or Stamps thereon, and to give another Stamp or Stamps of the same Description and Value, or otherwise, as their Discretion, where it shall appear to them to be expedient, Stamps of any other Description and of equal Value is less thereof. Provided always, that the Application for such Relief as aforesaid shall be made within Three Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or within Two Calendar Months after the Date of the Instrument bearing the Stamp or Stamps aforesaid; and provided it shall be made upon the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, in Cases where the Stamp or Stamps aforesaid shall be of less Value than the Instrument required, that the same were used by Misdoings, or under a Misapprehension of the Law, and without any Intention to avoid or delay the Payment of the full Duty charged on such Instrument.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps to allow as good, and to cancel, and in the manner aforesaid to give other Stamps in lieu of all such Stamps as shall have been used for or upon any Instruments which shall have been executed or signed by any of the Parties thereto, but which, by reason of any Mistake thereon, shall be afterwards found unfit for the Purposes intended, or which, by reason of the Death of any Party thereto without having executed or signed the same, cannot be completed in as to effect the Transaction intended in the same proposed, and which shall, in consequence, be cancelled and delivered up to the said Commissioners as aforesaid, provided the Application for the Relief hereby given shall be made within Three Calendar Months after the passing of this Act or within Two Calendar Months after the Date of the Instrument as aforesaid; and provided the Facts upon which the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to give Relief shall be fully proved by Affidavit or otherwise to their Satisfaction.

XV. And be it further enacted, That where the Commissioners of Stamps have already the Power of allowing and cancelling spoiled Stamps, and of giving others of the same Description and Value in lieu thereof, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, at their Discretion, where it shall appear to them to be expedient, to give Stamps of any other Description and of equal Value with the Stamps cancelled in lieu thereof.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Instruments for or upon which any Stamp or Stamps have been or shall be used, of equal or greater Value than the Instruments required, but not of the proper Description, shall nevertheless be deemed valid and effectual in the Law, except in those Cases where the Stamps used as such Instruments shall have been specially appropriated to any other Instrument by having its Name on the Face thereof.

and such Justice shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered, if they shall so think fit, to examine into the Matter of every such Account, and to administer an Oath or Affirmation to such Churchwardens and Overseers of the Truth of such Account, and to disallow and strike out of every such Account all such Charges and Payments as they shall deem to be unnecessary, and to reduce such as they shall deem to be exorbitant, specifying upon or at the Foot of such Account every such Charge or Payment and its Amount, in so far as such Justice shall disallow or reduce the same, and the cause for which the same is disallowed or reduced; and it shall be lawful for such Two or more Justices, and they are hereby required to signify their Allowance and Approbation of any such Account under their Hands, and to sign and attach the Captions of the same at the Foot of such Account, in manner directed by the said last recited Act: And in case such Churchwardens and Overseers or any of them, shall refuse or neglect to make and yield up or to submit such Account, or to verify the same by Oath as aforesaid, or to deliver over as their successors within Two Days from the signing and attesting such Accounts, any Goods, Church or other Things, which on the Examination and Allowance of such Account in manner aforesaid shall appear to be remaining in the Hands of such Churchwardens or Overseers, it shall and may be lawful for any Two or more Justices of the Peace to enter into, levy or seize, to the Common Goal, until he, she or they shall have made and yielded such Account, and verified the same as aforesaid, or shall have delivered over such Goods, Church and other Things which shall appear to be so remaining in his, her or their Hands as aforesaid, and in case such Churchwardens and Overseers, or any of them, shall refuse or neglect to pay to their Successors within Fourteen Days from the signing and attesting such Account, any Sums or Sums of Money or Arrearages which on the Examination and Allowance of such Account in manner aforesaid, shall appear or be found to be due and owing from such Churchwardens or Overseers, or any of them, or remaining in their Hands, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justice Churchwardens and Overseers by Warrant from any Two or more Justices of the Peace, to levy all such Sums and Sums of Money by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, rendering to the Parties the Overplus, and in default of such Distress, it shall be lawful for any such Two Justices of the Peace, to commit the Offender or Offenders to the Common Goal of the County, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, until Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money or Arrearages is aforesaid.

Licences to deal in Thread Laces, granted by an Act of the Forty sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, and from under the Management of the Commissioners of Stamps, should be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of the Duties on Stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, who should from time to time pay the

and that there should also be set apart at the Exchequer, Quarterly, such further Sum as should be equal to the net Produce of the Duties on Licences to deal in Thread Laces, of which a separate Account should be kept at the Stamp Office, and be transmitted to the Exchequer; and that after setting apart the said several Sums, the Remainder of the Monies to be paid into the Exchequer as aforesaid should be deemed an Addition made to the Publick Revenue of Great Britain, for the Purpose of defraying the increased Annual Charge occasioned by any Loan made or Stock created by virtue of any Act or Acts passed or to be passed in the same Session of Parliament: And whereas the net Produce of the Duties paid into the Exchequer pursuant to the Provision of the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Kings, in the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and ten, amounted to the Sum of Five millions one Hundred eighty eight thousand five hundred twenty six Pounds Sixteen Shillings and One Penny; Cap. clxiv.

An Act for building certain Offices for the Examiners, Clerk of the Crown and Clerks of the Petty Bag, of the High Court of Chancery; and for making certain Regulations in the Examiners's Office of the said Court; and for making Provision for such of the Examiners, Deputy Examiners and Clerks, as from Length of Service or from Age or Infirmary, are or shall be incapacitated from the due Execution of their Office; and for making Provision for other Officers of the said Court; and for making other Payments in respect of the said Offices. [25th June 1810.]

WHEREAS the due Execution of the Office of Examiner of the High Court of Chancery, by Persons qualified and competent to discharge the important Duties of the said Office, is of the utmost Consequence to the Administration of Justice, and the Interest of the Sutors of the said Court: And whereas the said Office hath hitherto been and is now held for Life; and Doubts are entertained whether there is any where competent Authority to remove the Person or Persons who now or hereafter may hold the said Office; or if at any time by means of Sickness, Infirmary, or other Cause, he or they should be unable or incompetent to discharge the Duties of the said Office: And whereas Henry Frowde Esquire, one of the Persons holding the said Office, is now and hath for a considerable time been a Licentiate Ward of the said Court of Chancery, and wholly incompetent to the Discharge of the Duties of the said Office: And whereas the Persons who have discharged the Duties of the said Office, have frequently been engaged in other Employments and Pursuits, whereby Delays, Hindrances and Impediments, and other Inconveniences have been occasioned to the Sutors of the said Court, in the Prosecution of their Suits therein: And whereas it would be expedient that in future the Duties of the said Office should be executed by the Person holding the same in their own Person, and that they should be expressly prohibited from acting as Counsel, Solicitors, Attorneys, Clerks

• in Court or Draughtmen, or as Agents or Clerks in any Profession in any of these Capacities, or in any
 • other Respect or Capacity in any way connected with the said Court of Chancery, or any Suit or Matter

 • Compensation should be made to such of the present Examiners and Deputy Examiners as shall be desirous to • continue their Service in the said Office, upon the Conditions and under the Restrictions hereby intended to
 • be imposed upon them; And whereas the Fees and Emoluments of the said Office are (as aforesaid) held to be
 • the great Increase in the Necessaries of Life and the Expence of Living not adequate to the Attendance,
 • Trouble and Importance of these Offices and to their Services; and it would be for the Benefit of the Suits
 • of the said Court, that adequate Provision should be made for the Persons who shall be appointed to discharge
 • the Duties of the said Office: And who was the Possessor of the Examiner's Office of the said Court of
 • Chancery, and also of the Clerk of the Crown and the Clerk of the Petty Bag, is carried on in one and the • same Building, in the Rolls Yard in the Liberty of the Rolls, in the County of Middlesex, and the same is
 • out of Repair, and insufficient for the necessary Accommodation of Writings which under Examination is in
 • the said Court, and for the Purposes of the said Office of Examiner and the other Offices there carried on: And
 • whereas it would be for the Benefit of the Service of the said Court, that proper Provision should from time to
 • time be made for such of the Examiners of the said Court and their Clerks as from Age or Infirmary are or
 • shall, in the Judgment of the said Court, be incapacitated to perform the Duties of their respective Offices;
 • and also that Provision should be made for putting the said Offices into proper and substantial Repair, or for
 • rebuilding the same if necessary, and for other Payments and Expences incident to the said Office; and that
 • such other Regulations should be made respecting the said Office, as are hereinafter mentioned and contained:
 • And whereas the Freehold of the said Premises or Part thereof is now vested in the principal Examiners of the
 • said Court, and in the Clerks of the Petty Bag, for their respective Lives, and during their Continuance in

 • that the Freehold of the said Premises should in future be vested in the Master of the Rolls and his Successors,
 • for the Purposes of the said Office of the said Court of Chancery, and that proper Consideration should be
 • made to the said Principal Examiners and to the Two junior Clerks of the Petty Bag, for their several Interests
 • in the said Premises respectively: And whereas their apartments in the said Court of Chancery certain other • Officers, called the Usher and Court Keeper of the said Court of Chancery, who, among other Duties of

 • and necessary for the Use of the said Court, and have been and are allowed to charge for the same by
 • Charge thereto, over and above the Cost of the Articles so furnished, as Part of their Remuneration for
 • undertaking and discharging their said Offices; and the same is an improper Mode of remunerating the said
 • Officers, and is open to great and continual Abuse, and ought to be discontinued for the future, and that
 • the said Officers should be remunerated in some other more or less proper Manner: And whereas there still
 • appertain to the said Court of Chancery certain other Offices called the Custodes, who, together with the Bailiffs
 • of their said Offices, keep the Records of their said Office, in the Two Towers of a certain Building, the said Court, and placed to the Credit of an Account, intitled, Account of Securities purchased with such Surplus Interest arising from Securities carried in an Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the

Cap. ccxiv.

An Act for rebuilding the late Theatre Royal Drury Lane, upon the Conditions, and under the Regulations therein mentioned. [10th June 1810.]

WHEREAS the Existence of well regulated Theatres substantially built, and capable of affording the best Accommodation to be obtained for the Publick, with respect to the forwarding of Amusements, Performances and Apparatus, as well as to their Facility for giving Representation, has always been considered to be a Matter worthy both of Royal Attention and Legislative Protection: And whereas in the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, the then Theatre Royal in Drury Lane was taken down, and great Sums expended by the Most Noble Fremont the late Duke of Bedford, in the Purchase of Ground and Houses in the Neighbourhood, in order to erect a new Theatre upon a Scale of Magnificence and Grandeur; the Interest of which Sums is expended by the said Duke of Bedford being added as an additional Rent Charge upon the said Theatre: And whereas the Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds was raised by the Proprietors of the said Theatre by Shares of Five hundred Pounds each, for the Accomplishment of the erecting the proposed new Theatre, and for paying of the then existing Mortgages; but owing to various and unforeseen Circumstances, and to the unavoidable Necessity which arose of making several Alterations in the original Plan, the Theatre when opened in the Beginning of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety four, was very far from being as a finished State, while the intended summing Buildings stated in the Estimate were not even begun, and a great Debt was left wholly unpaid for, and the whole Sum intended to be applied to the Building of the Theatre was entirely expended by the Trustees in endeavouring to accomplish the same: And whereas a Settlement of the Remainder of the said Debt and Claims took place in the Year One thousand eight hundred and two, through an Arrangement made under the immediate Direction and Authority of the Lord Chancellor, and adjusted as by all Parties: And whereas, in the course of a successful Progress towards the Liquidation of the said Claims, the said Theatre Royal, with all its Scenery, Warehouse, Furniture and other Articles, was wholly destroyed by the Calamity of Fire in the Year One thousand eight hundred and nine, being valued only to the Amount of Thirty five thousand Pounds, or thereabouts: And whereas it is deemed expedient to surrender and make over the whole Interest of the present Proprietors of the said Property to a Body of Subscribers purchasing the same and becoming lawful Proprietors of the whole Patent, Lease or other Privileges for Seats, Material, Furniture, Sums of Ground, and every other Property of whatsoever Description now belonging or to hold as Tenet for the Proprietors of the said Theatre: And whereas the several Persons hereinafter named are willing and desirous, at their own Expense, to provide for or to discharge all just and equitable Claims on the late Theatre, should the same be duly demanded to their Satisfaction; and not bound to record the computed Amount upon which they are willing to become Subscribers; and also to erect, build, finish and furnish, fit for Representation, the said intended new Theatre, with the necessary Buildings and Improvements: But as the several Proposals before mentioned cannot be carried into Effect without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty, That it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That His Majesty the Duke of Bedford, His Grace the Duke of A, His Right Honourable Lord Keswick, Samuel Whitbread, Richard Sturges, Peter Moore, Harvey Lindsay, Charles St, Sir Robert Barclay Barnett, Thomas Cox, the Honourable Thomas Erskine, the Honourable David Anderson, Alexander Davidson, Thompson, *J.
